Leicestershire: Netball Coach Development Day

Leicestershire held their first coaching workshop on Saturday 23rd August for qualified and unqualified coaches due to a demand from clubs for a bigger coach workforce.

The County Sport Partnership send out a save the date request and asked clubs and coaches what they would like to see delivered. 26 responses were very exciting letting us know that people were interested in developing their coaching skills.

10 coaches attended and lead presenter Rosie Port went through her distinctive Games for Understanding - how netball is an invasion game and the main object is to score...I know that’s sounds so easy but there are other factors that may interrupt the process! (What are these things you ask yourself?) Well you should have come and seen for yourself!

The day progressed and coaches were given an opportunity to practice observation and analyse some of the young players invited and have a go at taking part in the practices for themselves, but the most important part was that the coaches felt they had others to coaches to work with and discuss their findings.

‘It was great to meet & learn alongside other Coaches’

‘fun day and brilliant to meet other coaches, I would advertise it further to get more coaches involved as it would benefit many’

‘The provision of food and drink were appreciated as was the hard work that went into the day. I learnt a lot. Looking forward to the December one.’

‘It was a really good event that gave more insight into the attacking principles which can be applied to game play.’

As the day was so successful Leicestershire and Rutland Sport are looking to run another one in December (5th or 6th TBC) so please keep your eye on social media and the websites

Lincolnshire: Guys v Girls 2015 – the revenge

This summer saw the 2nd annual Battle of the Sexes Netball Tournament and family fun day get into full swing at Kirton Middlecott School, Boston. Back by popular demand, the tournament saw new and returning teams competing and the game was certainly raised with the Guys bringing their 'A' game and challenging both the Girls tactics and fitness!

Following a round robin session in the morning, teams were then seeded and play culminated in a brilliant final between Team Sass for the Girls and Kiss My Pass! for the Guys. Goal for goal in the first few minutes, the Guys pushed Team Sass hard but the girls finally reigned supreme with a winning score of 12-7. Play-offs for 3rd & 4th saw the Nothin' but Net Guys beat Hot Wasps Girls meaning the Guys took 2 out of the top 5 finishing positions. Royal Birds won the coveted 'Wooden Spoon' Trophy with 'Best Girl' going to Kerry Daylew and 'Best Guy' to Gary O'Conner. Neil Wheatley begrudgingly accepted his 'Bad Boy' award, accompanied by the appropriate 'boos' for a small disagreement with an umpire.

The netball ran alongside a family fun day complete with a 'Send a Message to Heaven' balloon release, inflatables, tombola, raffle and 'secret' bidding on a simply spa day at Eden Hall in Newark. Combined with a diamond draw from Maudes the Jewellers, the day managed to raise a fantastic £3004.50 for the chosen charities Cancer Research UK and Pancreatic Cancer UK - in memory of Noel Irvine - Uncle to Lindsay Betts one of the tournaments organisers.

Bring on next year! Thanks go to all sponsors; Kirton Middlecott Gym, J & D Betts Plumbing, S.M. Kent Building & Taylored Security.
Northamptonshire: World Cup Breakfast

Northamptonshire County Netball Association set up a World Cup Netball Breakfast event in August in support of the England Netball team playing against Jamaica in the Netball World Cup.

Tickets were sold for £10 per person which included a full English breakfast, tea and coffee, plus fantastic seats in front of the big screen to watch the match.

An amazing £480 was raised which was donated to the Chemo Patient Ward at Northampton General Hospital. County Chair Yvonne Blunt said ‘Brilliant turn out for the World Cup Breakfast with the bonus of the Roses winning by four goals!!!! Fab game and kept us all on the edge of our seats.’ #UniteinRed

Well done to everyone involved on raising such an incredible amount!

Northamptonshire: Netball Youth Camp

Many netballers from across Northamptonshire (and beyond!) came together to join in England Netball’s Netball Youth Camp.

Loughborough Lightning’s Lauren Massey came along for the day to show the youngsters some skills and drills.

Fun was had by everyone involved!
Nottinghamshire: NUSA

The Nottingham University Samworth Academy (NUSA) is proud to announce it has successfully received funding to become a county centre for netball. The funds have been provided by England Netball and have seen an overhaul and expansion of NUSA’s facilities, with the opening of the new centre taking place on Saturday the 19th of September.

The new facilities and equipment enable NUSA to now fulfil the requirement for a county netball centre, giving local teams an easily accessible location for training and competition.

NUSA’s Events and Facilities Officer, Matt Colbourne, spoke about the benefits of the new centre: “We are delighted that NUSA is finally able to cater to the need of a county netball centre in Nottingham. As well as helping to bring Nottingham back up in terms of the sport, the use of the facilities will enable us to open NUSA up for more community activities, such as adult learning.”

Head of School, Mark Watts, commented: “Receiving this funding will bring countless benefits to NUSA and to the surrounding community. As well as our pupils now having access to professional level equipment, we can further our sense of community spirit by holding training sessions and tournaments, and then expanding even further in to using NUSA as a base for non-sporting activities”

Julian Taylor from England Netball added:

“This is a fantastic development for netball within the county. To have a dedicated County Netball Centre from which we can deliver leagues, tournaments, school competitions and the performance academy is a major boost to the sport within Nottinghamshire. We will also look to build on this new partnership with NUSA and deliver central coaching & umpiring workshops in the future”.
